(UIN Sjech M. Djamil Djambek Bukittinggi)

Dear Sir/Ma,

We hope this letter finds you in excellent health and high spirits. We are delighted to extend to you a warm invitation to serve as an invited speaker at the International Counseling Summit, which will be held online via Zoom from April 1st to April 5th, 2024. This summit aspires to convene a diverse assembly of speakers and scholars from the realms of Education, Counseling, Psychology, and Mental Health to exchange insights, research findings, and perspectives on the contemporary challenges and breakthroughs in these vital fields. We are confident that your participation would significantly enrich our discussions and offer invaluable insights to our participants.

Enclosed with this letter, you will find comprehensive details regarding the event's schedule, thematic sessions, and technical.

In alignment with the spirit of the holy month of Ramadan, the International Counseling Summit is dedicated to a philanthropic cause. We are pleased to announce that all donations received from participants will be contributed directly to the construction, development of the Edupotensia Mosque and Educational Scholarships, an initiative aimed at fostering an educational and spiritual haven for our community.

We eagerly anticipate your acceptance of our invitation to impart your expertise and experiences to our audience. Kindly inform us of your availability for this event at your earliest convenience. Should you have any questions or need additional information, please feel free to contact us directly.

Thank you for considering our invitation. We look forward to the opportunity to welcome you to the International Counseling Summit, where together, we can make a profound contribution to the fields of Education, Counseling, Psychology, and Mental Health.

Best regards,
Chief Executive
